

Continual Professional Development Webinar 2021

Giulietta Durante

Nutritionist & Women's Health Expert

Hormones in Harmony

Giulietta Durante is a Nutritionist & Women's Health Expert based in London. She is a menstrual cycle nutritionist on a mission to help women feel uplifted and empowered to live their best lives, who works with clients all over the world. She has a First Class degree in Nutritional Therapy, and is trained under the Functional Medicine model – a pioneering approach to health which focuses on the underlying causes of disease rather than looking at symptoms in isolation. Giulietta is a member of BANT (the professional body for Registered Nutritional Therapists in the UK) and registered with the CNHC (Complementary and Natural Healthcare Council).
